IN GAHANA.

By F. K. Appiah

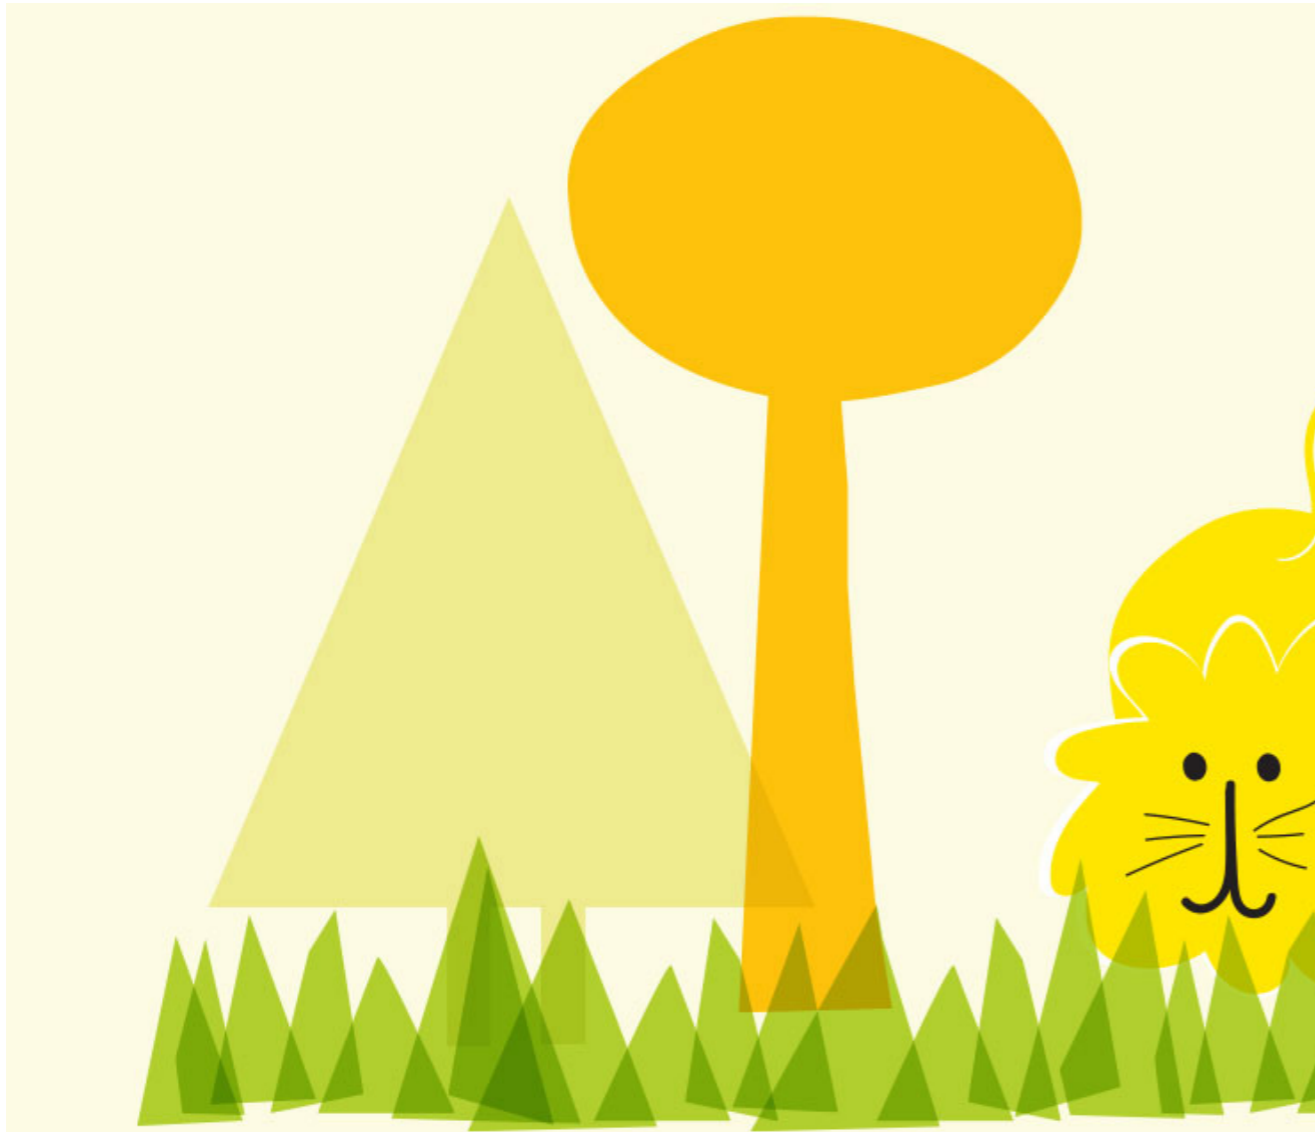

Botwebako

Christmas Eve

On Christmas thanksgiving, a creature is released on demanding a soup to be prepared for him. Some has stood up in retaliating in festive not to do so.

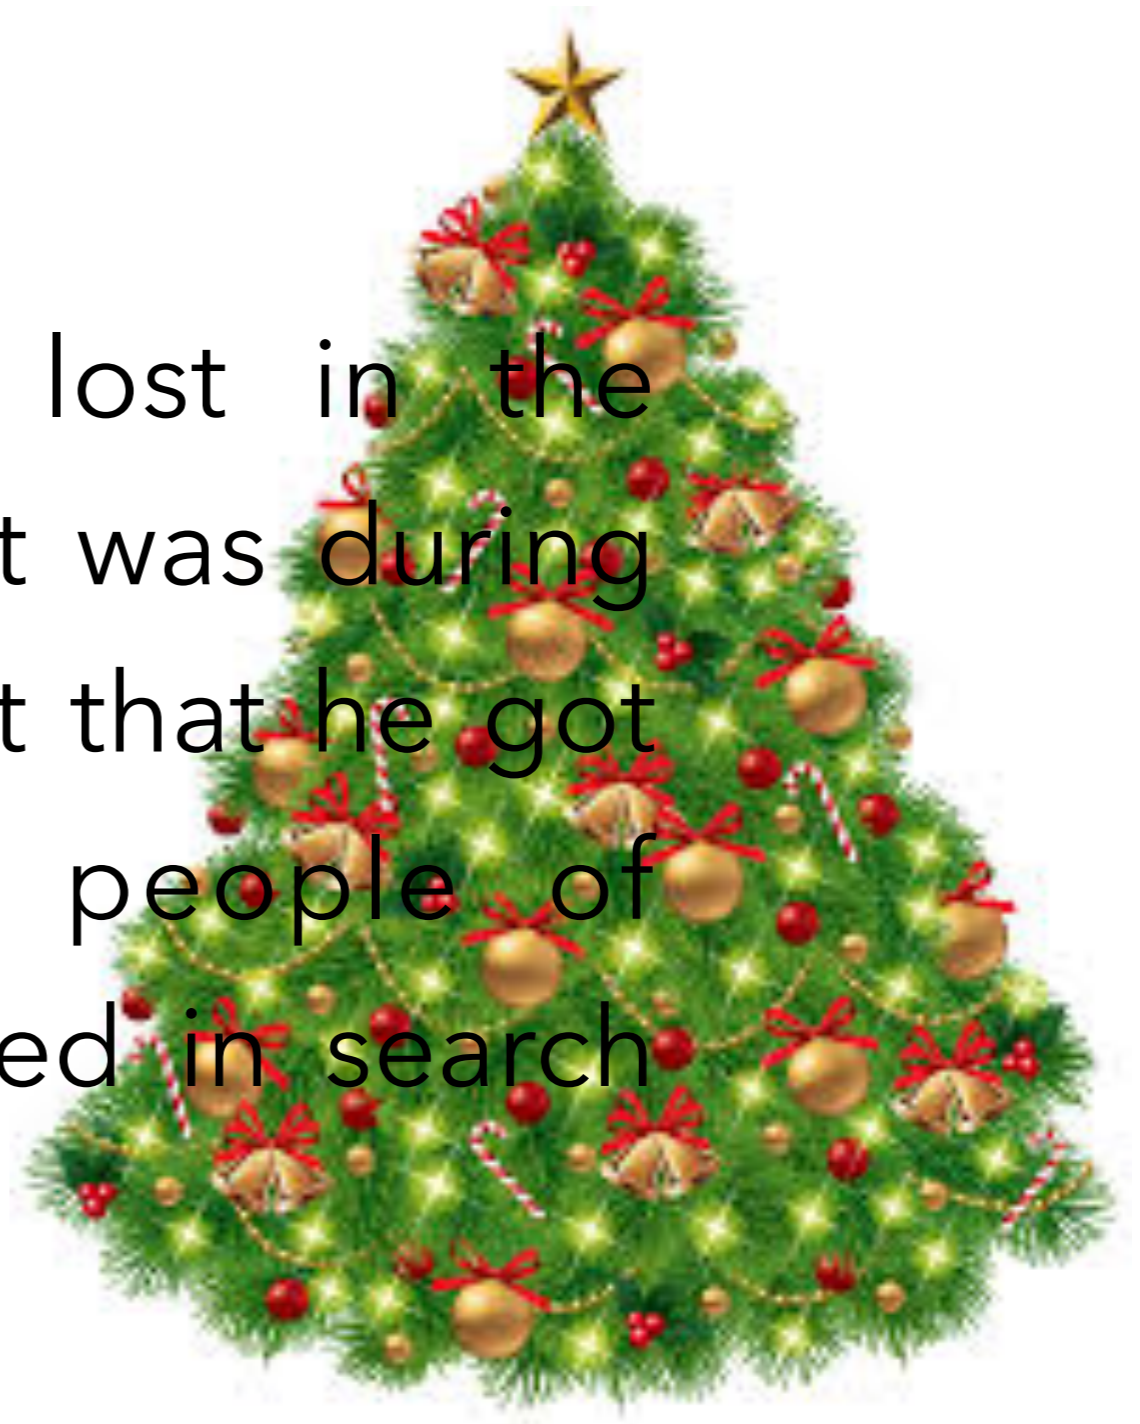

A young man among them which is the leader of the festive has called an elder of the community. he elder in submission did inform the young ones of the debut. The elder has claimed that the festive was created for Botwebaako...

Lost in Festive
Got Missing

People Hunting.

Botwebaako did get lost in the forest sometime ago. It was during the festive that on hunt that he got missing. A team of people of Gahana were dispatched in search of him.

The team did their best in the rescue process but yield no result. So the whole community did lost him in time for 2 weeks. After 2 weeks, one morning in frosty day Bakoo did appear to my father. He is late and God rest his soul.

God rest his soul.

Revive His Energy

My mother did recall as she told me. My mother prepared Botwebako a soup to revive his energy. The green pot of soup was sometime to remember. Botwebako was taken to his house to rest. He then begun to tell the story of the creative of christmas eve.

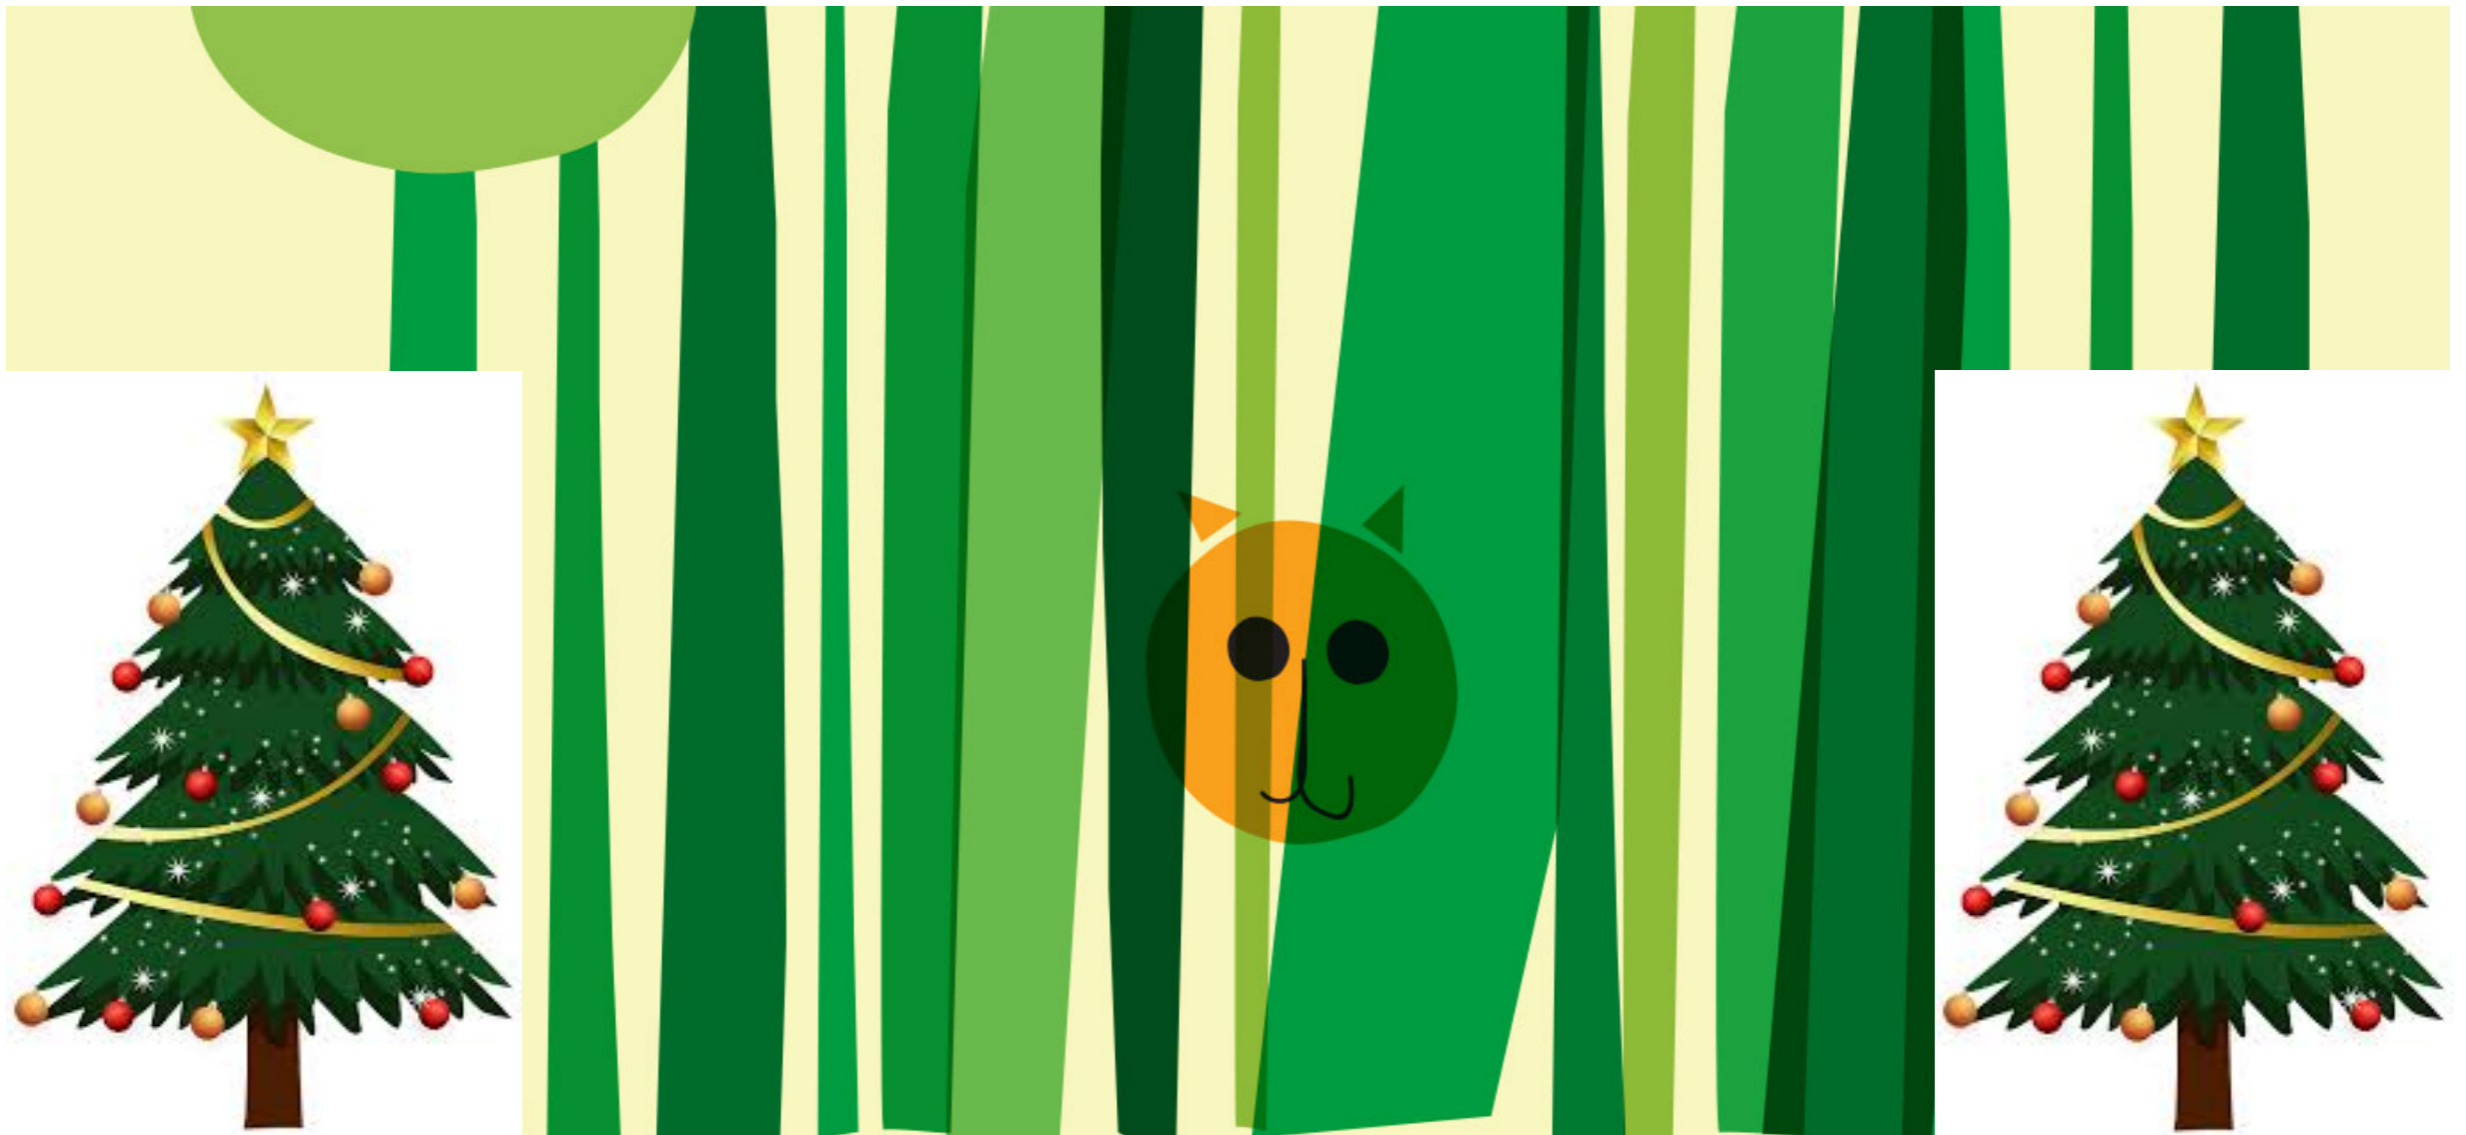

Return of Botwebaako

Botwebaako claimed to have seen a creature of the forest. During the hunt in the forest his wife did prepare a green soup for him to travel in the festive hunt with. Upon meeting the creature did offer him the soup.

The creature vowed to the sweetness on drinking the soup. The creature was informed of the festive and decided to visit it. But on the occurrence of Botwebaako's age. It is Botwebaako's birthday is today.

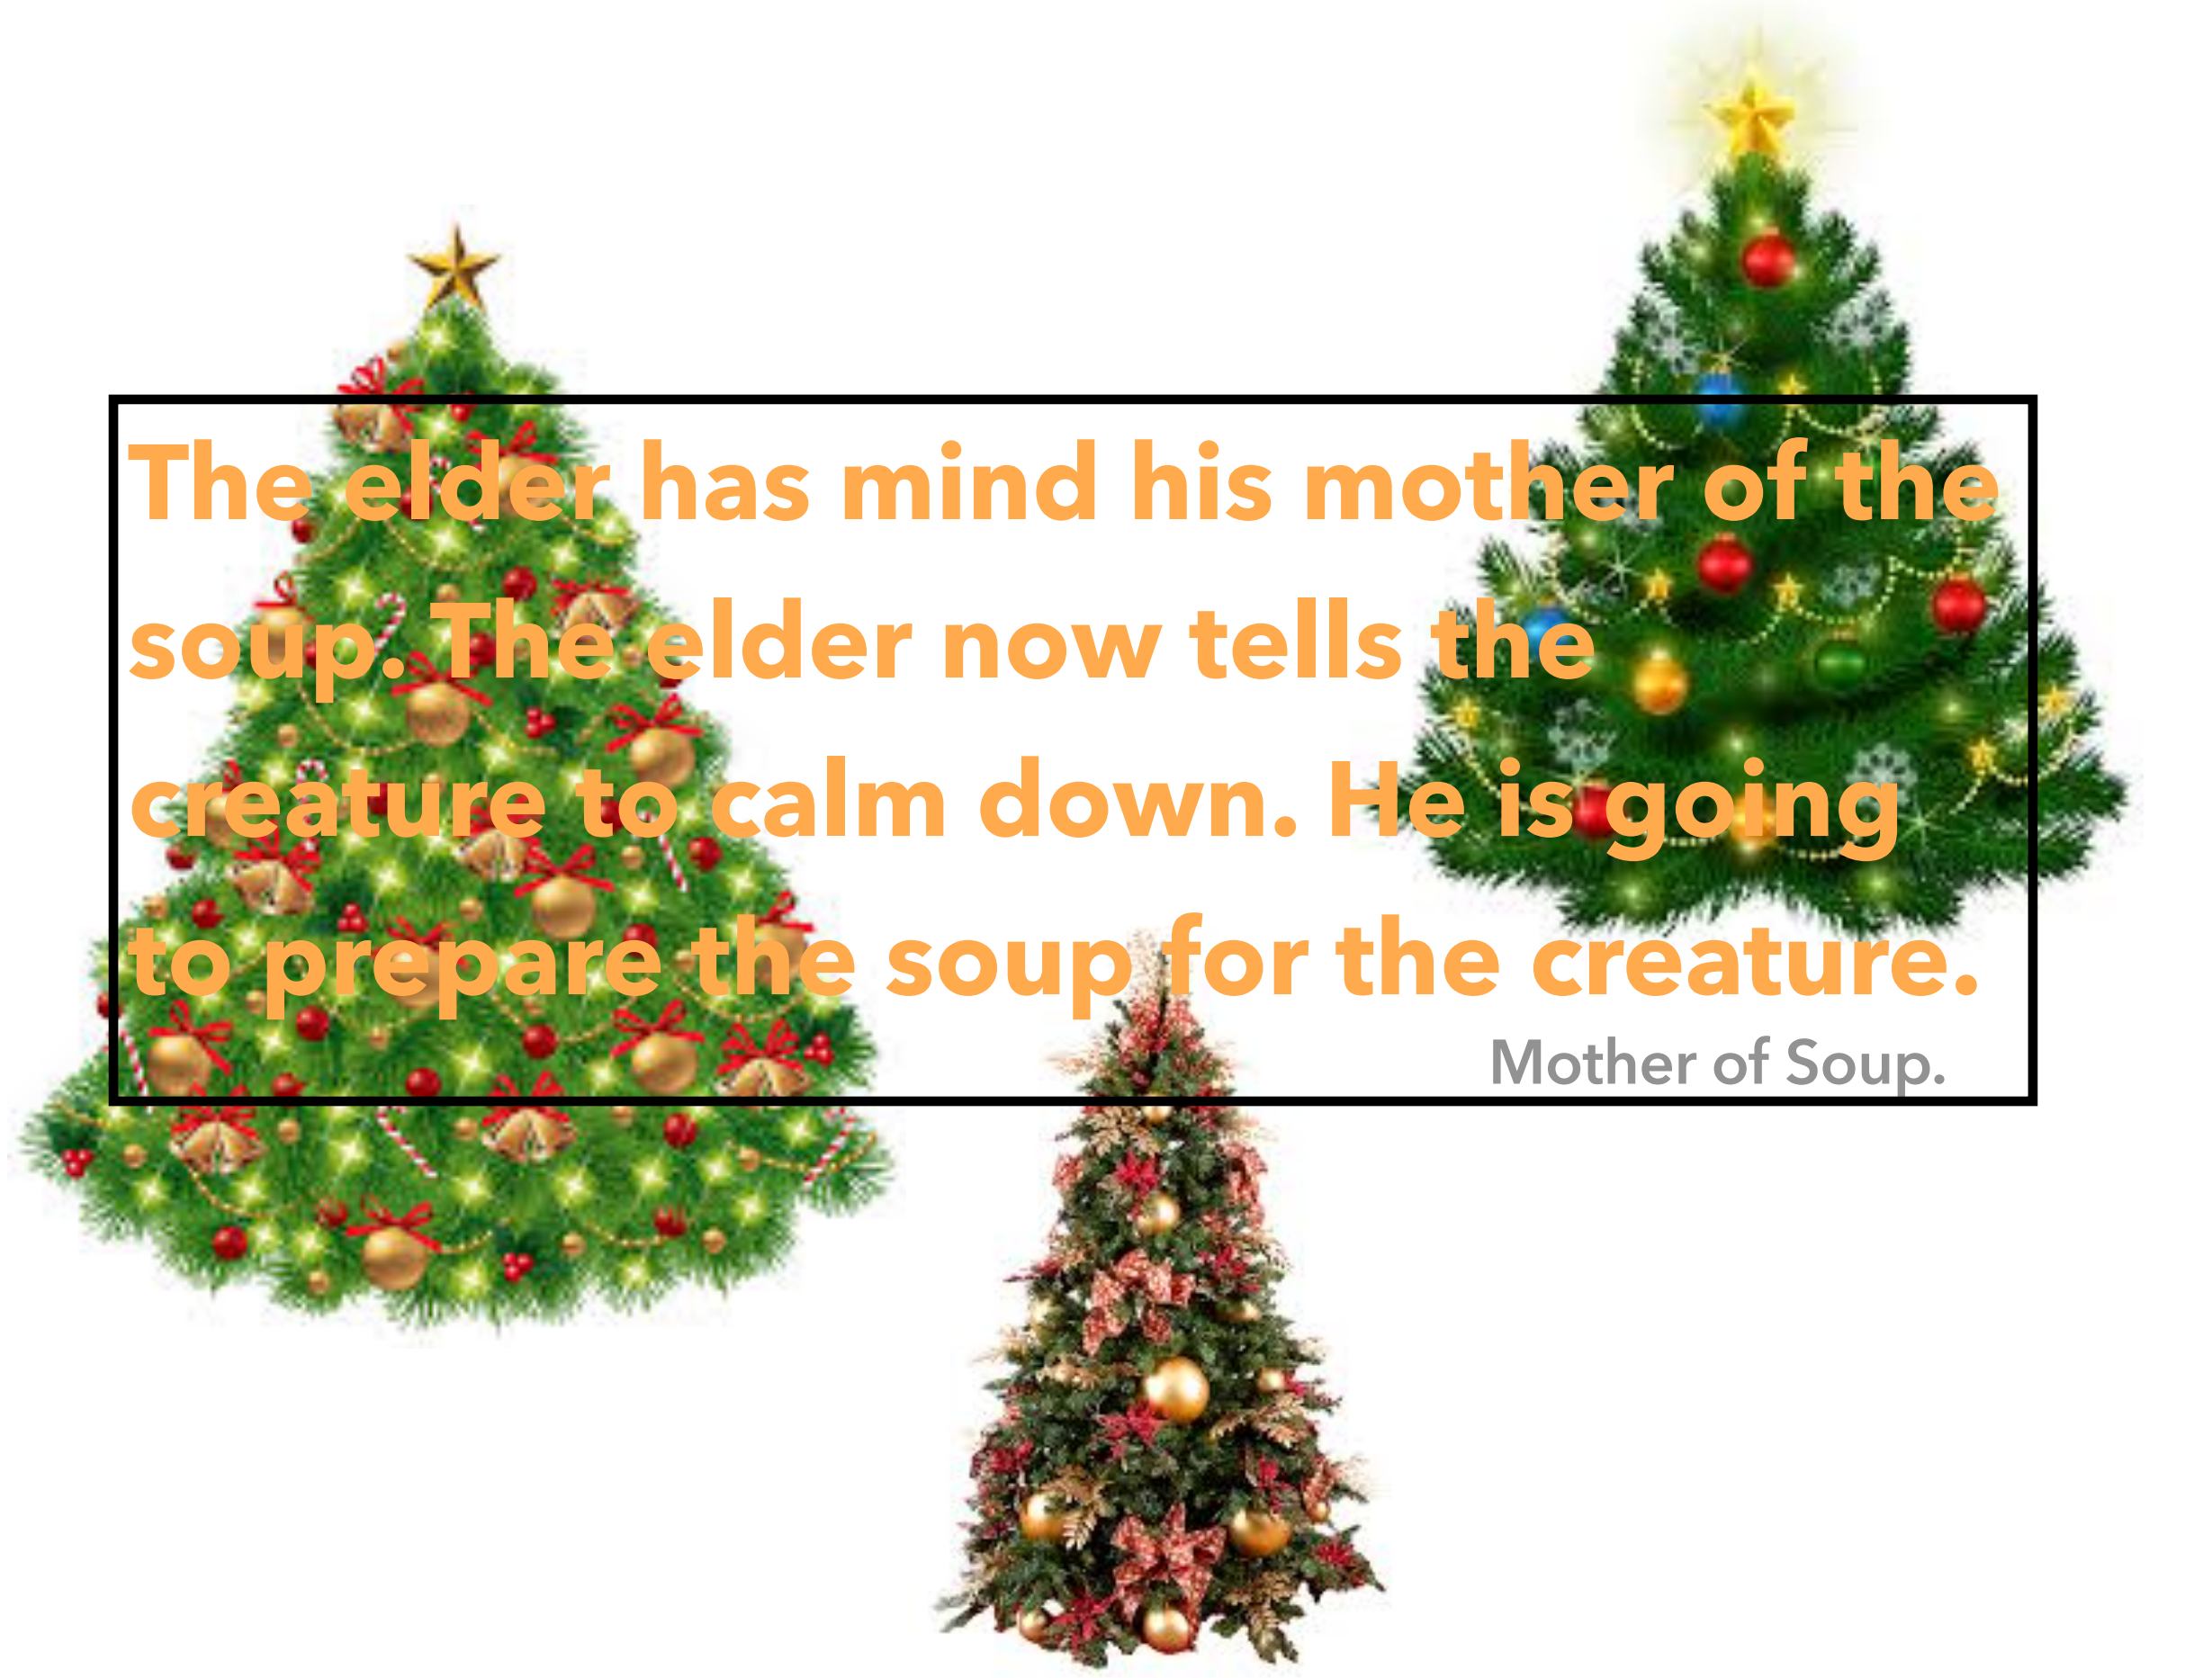

Sake of Soup.

Creature Gets Soup.

The creature is here just for the sake of soup. My mother was right about all this old history. The creature warns to get soup or else he will put an end to the growth of the leaves used in the preparation of the soup.

The elder has mind his mother of the soup. The elder now tells the creature to calm down. He is going to prepare the soup for the creature.

Mother of Soup.

The young ones have heard of the change of festive name to Botwebaako.

A Young tells Elder.

The young one tells the elder to be fast in submission.

A fter some hours of waiting, the creature has it's soup and drinking in enjoyment.

Drinking in Enjoyment

The elder has made his submission to Jan end.

Submission Ends!

The festive is continuing after this saga;

Festive

Celebration Every December.

Everyone is happy of the outcome and festive is still in celebration every December.
